up their dreams as they tend to reach the original targets. They strive to work to their potential, in the process, they increase their performance thereby multiplying further their potential and this is an unending life cycle phenomenon. They are not in competition with anyone else, but themselves. That is the culture of excellence.

Through 79 years of my life, I have been part of pre-independent India, jubilation of independence and the post-independence era. Let me recall, an incident from Mahatma Gandhiji's diary that records his advice to a group of students who came to meet him in Calcutta:

"Students ought to think and think well. They should do no wrong. Students should do everything to build-up a new state of India which would be everybody's pride".

The actions of the champion of non-violence at the time of independence made me feel proud by being led an inspirational leader.

Friends, while in the company of many young inspired students of IIT Madras, I would like to give my perspective on the topic "Evolution of a Unique YOU". In this context, I will talk to you about four important aspects in life with my experiences. Aim in life, Acquiring Knowledge, Working Hard towards your dream even in the times of difficulty and then finally, how to manage failures and success in life.
