IIC (2020-2021)

The Gayatri Vidya Parishad College of Engineering for Women has established an Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) as per the norms of MHRD Innovation Cell (MIC), Govt. of India for 2019-2020. The objective of this council is to enable the young technocrat's minds to think out of the box towards innovative solutions in engineering and bringing them into reality in terms of working prototypes. The council is continuously being guided by a top notch panel of expert members from government research organizations and industries like Wipro, Reliance, BSNL, Vizag Start-ups, and Skill Development, FSME. Projected outcomes of the council includes patents, research publications, prototypes, and start ups.
